PRE-CONFERENCE TRAINING COURSES INCLUDING #2 CLIMATE CHANGE IMPACTS IN THE MINING SECTOR

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course #2 Assessing and Addressing Climate Change Impacts in the Mining Sector. This 1-day course (2 April), taught by leading engineers and scientists in the fields of climate change and infrastructure risk, discusses trends and projections in climate change and impacts on the mining sector. Integrating lessons and examples from case studies, it will lead participants through available tools and frameworks to appropriately assess and manage climate risk.

GOALS AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

Participants will have an understanding of climate trends and be able to identify and apply available climate data sources. They will develop an appreciation for the impacts that climate shifts have on mine operations and planning from diverse perspectives including investment, asset, and risk management, financial planning, and legal liability. Lastly, they will be provided guidance and examples to support communication of climate risks, strengthening their capacity to present risks and recommend actions.

FEES

IAIA's courses cost US$275 for the 1-day courses and US$475 for the 2-day courses. The course fee includes course materials, light lunches, and coffee breaks. Participants in the training courses who are not registered for the IAIA conference will be assessed an additional US$75 fee. Pre-registration and prepayment by 15 March 2017 is required.

Why train with IAIA?

IAIA is the International Association for Impact Assessment, organized in 1980 to bring together researchers, practitioners, and users of various types of impact assessment from all parts of the world. IAIA involves people from many disciplines and professions. Our members include corporate planners and managers, public interest advocates, government planners and administrators, private consultants and policy analysts, university and college teachers and their students. IAIA has members from over 120 nations.

For 36 years IAIA has been holding annual conference events and training courses all over the world to promote best practices in impact assessment.

With IAIA training courses, participants will have a chance to connect to a global network of impact assessment practitioners and exchange information and experience with other practitioners from around the world.

Pre-registration and pre-payment by 15 March are required for all training courses.
