

October 2014

Involuntary Resettlement in Brazil

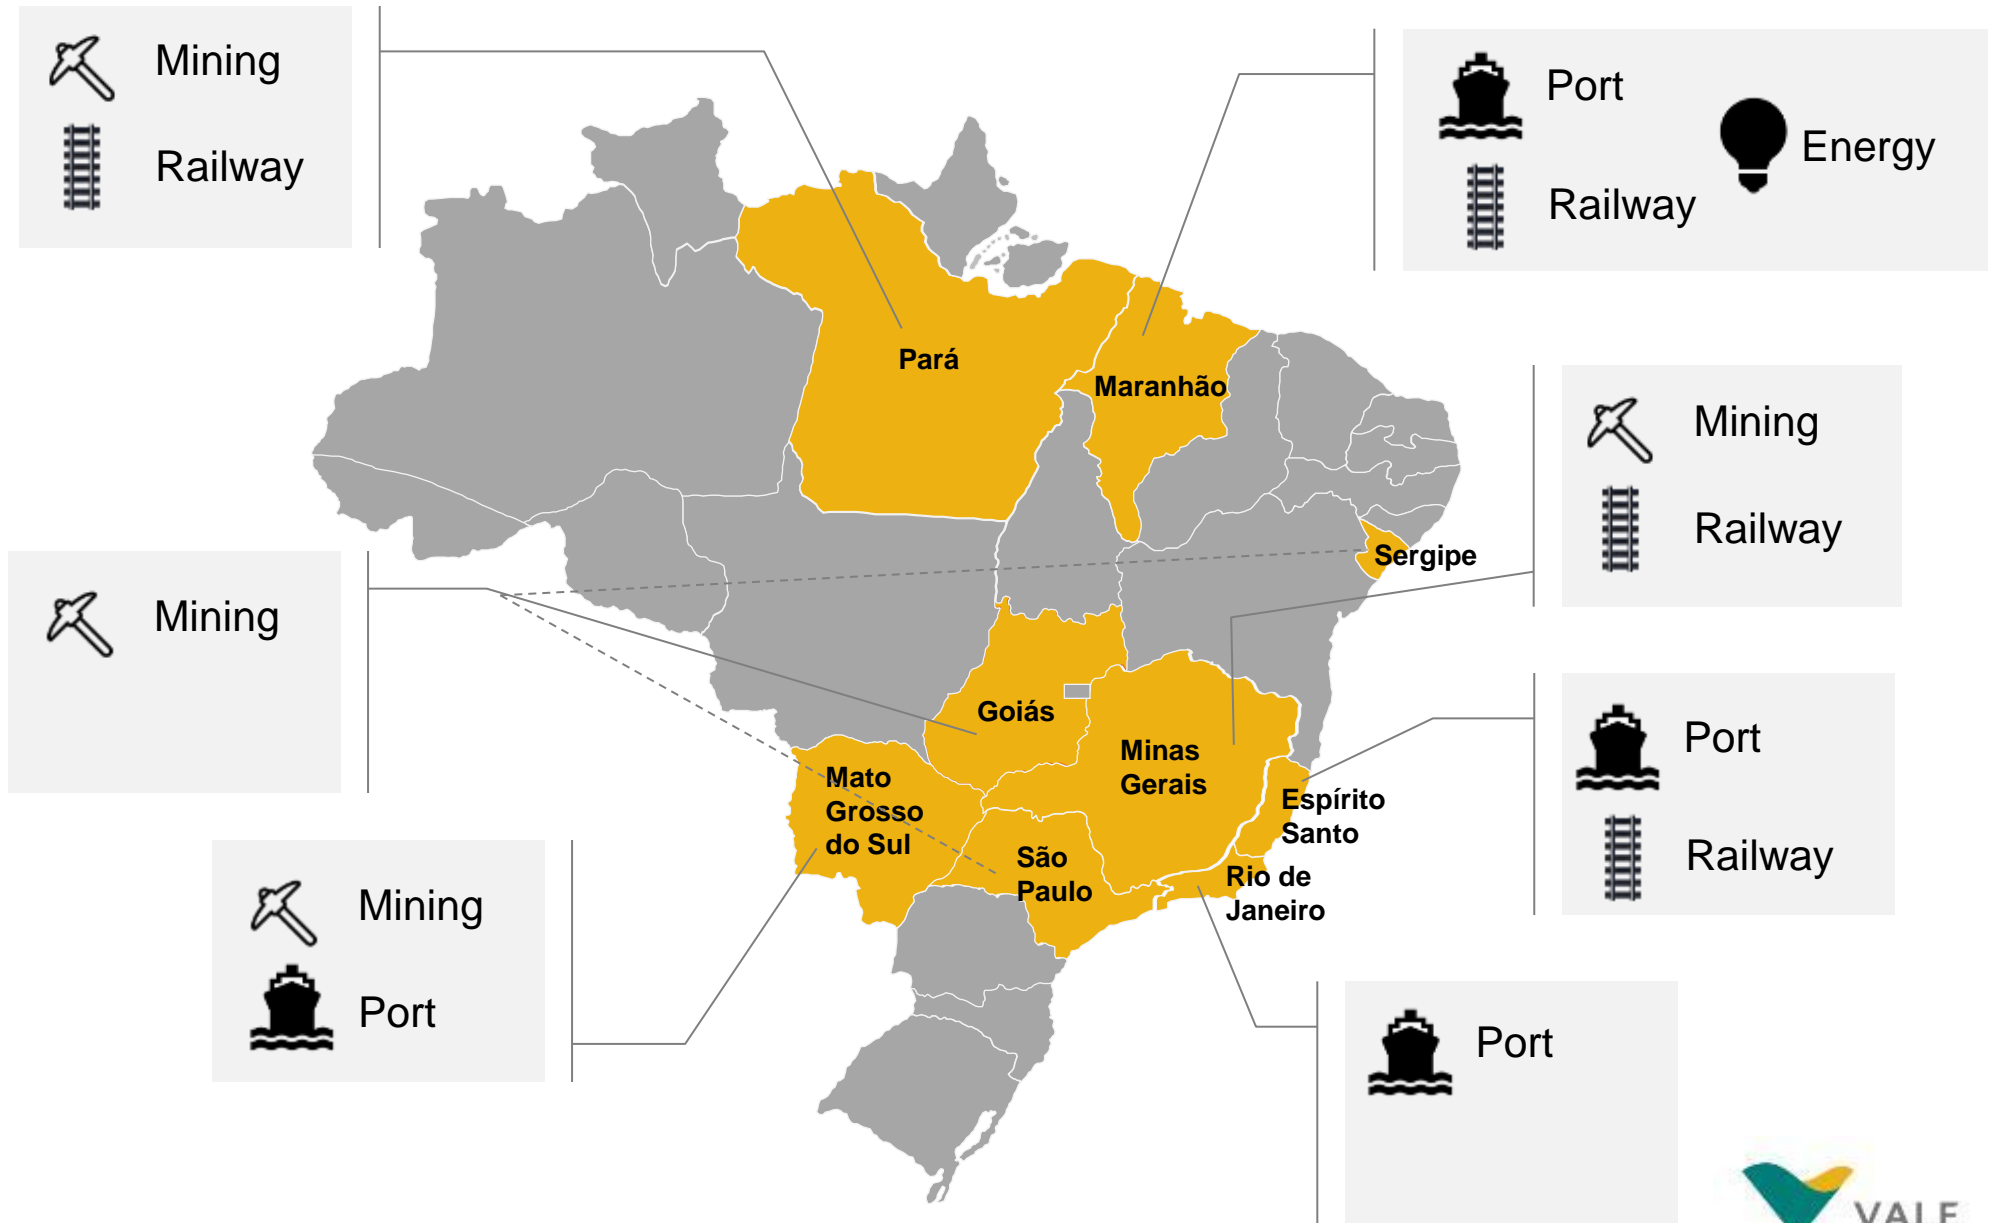

IAIA Special Symposium Resettlement & Livelihoods

Vale Across the World

With offices, operations, exploration and joint ventures spanning five continents, Vale is one of the main global mining companies. We also operates in logistics, energy and steel.

Vale Operations in Brazil

Land issues:

Urban/Rural

Private/Public

Registration

Agrarian Reform

Set of actions to promote redistribution of agricultural land in order to attend principles of social justice, sustainable rural development and increasing production

INCRA is a government agency responsible for agrarian reform in Brazil

Pará

Region occupied by several agrarian reform settlement

2006

Vale acquires mining rights from another company

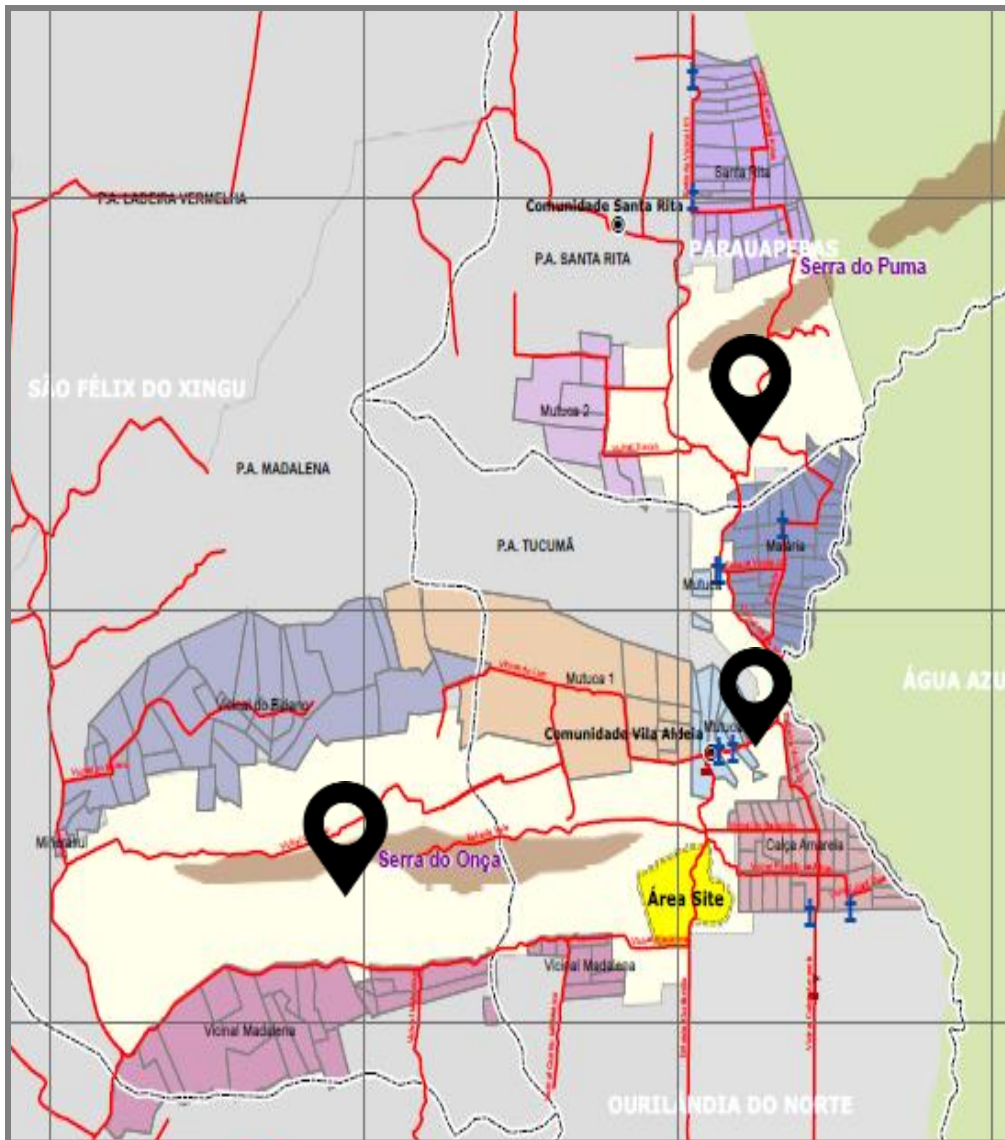

2008-2010

Discussion of land's access model (Vale, INCRA, Comissão Pastoral da Terra, Public Ministry and families that have been settled)

2010

Agreement for resettlement

Case | 1º Process

📍 109 families that have been settled (2010/2012)

Motivation

- Affected area by mining projects

Governance

- Coordination: INCRA
- Execution: Vale*
- Inspection: Comissão Pastoral da Terra, Farmers Union and Public Ministry

Resettlement

- Vale bought rural property and structured it as resettlement “PA União” (houses, infrastructure and services)
- Technical support for agriculture

Points for attention

- Remaining families

* Affected families participated in the definition of criteria for calculate compensation

Case | Resettlement “PA União”

1

Construction of houses

2

Construction of school with sports
court

3

Construction of healthy office

6

Acquisition of equipment and incentive for agriculture

5

Opening secondary roads and installation of electrical network

4

Construction of church

📍 73 families that have been settled (2013/2014)

Motivation

- Loss of income
- Limited access to health and education services, religion and recreation
- Isolation

Governance

- Coordination: INCRA
- Execution: Vale
- Inspection: Comissão Pastoral da Terra and Farmers Union

Involuntary Resettlement*

- 21 families – resettled in “PA União”
- 34 families – assisted compensations
- 18 families – simple compensations

Points for attention

- Social investments for remaining families

* Types of assistance defined by INCRA

Thank you!

Community Relations Department
heloisa.bortolo@vale.com

